Welcome to Chordiality's Summer Holiday – a celebration of Summer with a splash of Christmas cheer!

CHORDIALITY are a non-auditioned SATB community- based choir of about 50 members that started in February 2008. We are based at Indooroopilly and, although many of our members are local, our membership is Brisbane-wide. We love to sing and enjoy each other's company. Chordiality's goals are to pursue choral excellence and have fun singing together. We perform music of all genres and eras, renaissance to modern, both accompanied and acappella. Chordiality accepts singers who are as passionate about our goals as we are. Membership is open to anyone who can sing in tune. Previous choral experience and being able to read music are advantages but not essential.

Chris Bradley - Conductor

Chris holds a Masters of Music from the University of Queensland majoring in Choral Conducting (for which he relocated from Sydney at the beginning of 2009), and a Bachelor of Music in Classical Voice, achieved at the Sydney Conservatorium of Music. As a Music Director and educator, Chris enjoys a busy and stimulating lifestyle with many groups of varying ages and abilities. He is currently Choirmaster at St Joseph's College Gregory Terrace, and Director of Music of Chordiality, Southern Cross Voices and Deception Bay Harmony Choir, as well as being assistant conductor for the Queensland Kodaly Choir under James Cuskelly. He has worked with the Australian Youth Choir, church choirs and community choirs, and continues to give voice workshops as part of music festivals. He also works as a private voice tutor both privately and in schools throughout Brisbane. As a singer, Chris has a background in choral singing, and has performed with many groups including the Brisbane Chamber Choir, Fusion, Sydney Philharmonia Motet Choir, Sydney Chamber Choir, St James' Church Choir, and the Sydneian Bach Choir both in a professional and amateur capacity. He has extensive experience in performing on stage, including operatic performances with Pacific Opera and Sydney Youth Opera, as a tenor soloist with choirs around Sydney, and also with Sounds Baroque as part of the Musica Viva schools program.

Simon Carl - Accompanist

Simon Carl received his Bachelor of Music with honours from the University of Queensland in 2004. Since then, he has accompanied numerous school choirs, and is currently the principal accompanist for community choirs 'Chordiality' and 'Southern Cross Voices'. Simon accompanied the Weller's Hill Vocal Group in their well-received performances at the 2010 ISME symposium in Beijing last year and is very excited about the upcoming 'Chordiality' tour of Britain in 2012. Simon brings a lifetime of choral experience to his work as an accompanist and is delighted to be in his fourth year with 'Chordiality'.
