All About Elgar

Guest Appearance: The Amadeus Orchestra

Sunday 10 November 2013

2 pm

Concert Hall, All Hallows' School
 Ann Street, Fortitude Valley

Welcome to Chordiality: All About Elgar

Chordiality is a community based choir of about 60 members that started rehearsing in February 2008. We are based in Indooroopilly and our membership is Brisbane-wide. We love to sing and enjoy each other's company. Chordiality's goals are to pursue choral excellence and have fun singing together.

Our concert today features the work of well-known English composer Sir Edward William Elgar (1857 – 1934). With special guest artists, the Amadeus Orchestra, we present a selection of Elgar's orchestral and choral works spanning almost 50 years. The beauty of Elgar's music is heard across a wide range of musical forms. Is there an underlying unity? Elgar has been quoted as saying: "The trees are singing my music – or have I sung theirs?"

Music Director – Christopher Bradley

Our Music Director, Christopher Bradley, joined Chordiality in 2011. He holds a Bachelor of Music in Classical Voice from the Sydney Conservatorium of Music and a Master of Music majoring in Choral Conducting from the University of Queensland. Chris is a highly experienced vocal performer, choral director and educator, and now works as a freelance conductor and voice tutor with various schools and community ensembles in and around Brisbane.

Accompanist – Simon Carl

Simon Carl accompanies the choir. He completed a Bachelor of Music with Honours in voice, from the University of Queensland in 2004, and is the regular accompanist for choirs including Southern Cross Voices. Simon brings a wealth of choral and vocal experience to his work as an accompanist.

Special Guest Artists – The Amadeus Orchestra

The Amadeus Orchestra is a mini orchestra which formed 3 1/2 years ago and is comprised of Strings, Woodwinds, Trumpet and Horn. They perform mainly popular classics, light music and some modern music, for the entertainment of Brisbane audiences. As well as private professional venues, they can often be found performing public concerts in Brisbane City Mall and local parks such as Newstead House.
